

2022 THEME

Standing on the Promises!

My dear Trinity Family,

I want to tell you that all will be well, that the worst is over, and that the best is yet to come. Yes, that is what I want to tell you. That is what I wish I could tell you. I would like to be a messenger of good news, of better days and a herald of a life far better than what we had before the pandemic hit us. Is that not what you would wish for all those you love?

Towards the latter part of each year, it has been my practice to spend time seeking the Lord's guidance for what the next year's theme must be. I am happy to announce that our theme for 2022 will be Standing on the promises. The Bible declares in 2 Corinthians 1:20: "For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so, through him the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God". In short, every promise of God is "Yes" and "Amen" in the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bible declares in Numbers 23:19, "God is not human, that he should lie, not a human being, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfill?"

*Standing on the promises that cannot fail.
When the howling storms of doubt and fear assail,
By the living Word of God I shall prevail,
Standing on the promises of God. (1)*

It was the renowned British missionary to India, William Carey who said, "The future is as bright as the promises of God".

As we stand on the threshold of a brand-new year, there is much to think about. I wonder how you are feeling as you work through the memories of a year that has redefined our sense of community, prosperity, and security. Some people could be sorrowful, some scornful, and others hopeful. Not too long ago, a young person who had been through a devastating break-up told me, "I wish I could forget 2021".

Yes, there may be parts of 2021 that you might want to forget – at a global level, a national level, a community level and a personal level. There are parts of the year in our corporate memory that we may wish never took place. To name a few - the school shooting in Oxford MI, the devastating December tornados in the Midwest and South, the Southern border humanitarian crisis, the devastation of hurricanes and wildfires, the Afghanistan humanitarian crisis and others.

On a personal note, it will be hard to erase the memory of Nehara's wail even as she heard that Miriam's dad had passed on. I was in the second level of the house on that December 1st morning when I heard her call out to me and cry.

It is never easy to experience significant life altering moments especially when they are painful. But how we move forward from them is what defines our future and our lives. To dwell in bitterness is to sign up for brokenness. To dwell in anger, is to sign up for anxiety. To dwell in hatred, is to sign up for hell on earth. I was listening some time ago to a gentleman who was speaking of his nephew who was undergoing professional medical care and counseling. The young man had attempted to end his life multiple times. The uncle sighed, "He seems to defeat himself all the time."

I don't know if you have witnessed someone that is/was hooked on opioids, drugs, alcohol, violent behavior, and other self-destructing addictions. In such stories we see precious lives that are often broken.

In his song, "The last ten years", country singer Kenny Rogers sings,

*"Well, the last ten years, look at the hills we've climbed .
The best golfer's black, the best rapper's white an' it's about time.
But we best beware, there's a brand-new fight you see.
An' I hate to say, we might be our own worst enemy."*

Well, it might not be a bad idea to occasionally have a country singer at the pulpit! Think about Rogers' words again, "An' I hate to say, we might be our own worst enemy". It was Michael Jackson who presented the world that soul searching line, "I'm starting with the man in the mirror, I'm asking him to change his ways."

Could we allow the turn of the year to be a time for the turn of our hearts? Would you take some quiet time with the Lord along with your Bible, journal, and pen? As you reflect upon your life, as you praise and pray, would you write down a list of:

- Your top twelve reasons to be thankful in 2021?
There are twelve months in a year, aren't there? (Don't forget that there were some difficulties which you were spared of, whether you observed them or not. For some of you it could be things like the job you did not lose, the hospitalization that was not needed or the accident that did not take place)
- Your top three memories with people you love.
- Your three most memorable times with the Lord.
- Your top three follies that you wish you did not commit.
- Your top three longings/ prayers/ goals for 2022.

History is replete with evidence that hard times hone human character. The Bible attests this truth in its pages. For instance, we are reminded in the book of Hebrews not to despise the Lord's discipline. The writer notes, "No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it."

When life gets tough, when people get unreasonable, when circumstances get overwhelming, I tell myself, "The Lord is not punishing you. He is polishing you."

It has been noted that on his deathbed, John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, spoke and repeated these final words,

"The best of all is, God is with us."

Scripture: Matthew 25:40

In a Peanuts cartoon Charles M. Schultz portrays Charlie Brown and Snoopy sitting side by side on the edge of a pier overlooking the waters. With their backs to the viewer, and their eyes on the waterfront, Schultz added these words, “Never forget who was there for you, when no one else was”.

The hymn writer James Russell Lowell penned these words in his hymn, “Once to every man and nation”.

*Though the cause of evil prosper,
Yet 'tis truth alone is strong;
Though her portion be the scaffold,
And upon the throne be wrong:
Yet that scaffold sways the future,
And, behind the dim unknown,
Standeth God within the shadow

As we think of the devastation and uncertainty that the pandemic has caused, we can take strength in his affirmation that God stands in the shadow keeping watch above his own.

Corrie Ten Boom and her family are remembered as a Dutch family who helped hundreds of Jews escape the Nazi Holocaust. During World War II, she and her family harbored hundreds of Jews to protect them from arrest by Nazi authorities. But she and her family were betrayed by a fellow Dutch citizen and the entire family was imprisoned. Corrie survived and wrote “The hiding place” and launched a global ministry. In a recent sermon at Trinity, Dr Flora Armetta quoted these powerful words from Corrie Ten Boom, “Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a known God”. What a precious assurance. Yes, we can face this year, enjoy it, grow in our faith and extend our ministries to touch our neighbors and communities while standing on the promises of God.

I am very aware of how we Trinity folk love music. Your love for music has certainly inspired the multiple song quotes in my first pastoral letter in 2022.

On a personal note, thank you for the tender, compassionate ways in which you have reached out to us during our time of loss. Thanks for all the precious prayers, cards, messages, meals and flowers that you have sent our way. I am sorry that we have not been able to respond to each of you with our personal expressions of gratitude.

At the beginning of this new year, I want to join you in thanking our Lord for our retired pastors, Parish nurse and our Homebound Team for their support to our pastoral care. We are thankful for our faithful leadership team, our dedicated team of staff and our amazing volunteers serving in a variety of teams. How can we ever do it without each one of you!

I also want to take a moment to thank each of you who accepted my “Advent Gospel Reading challenge”. Thanks for praying, reading, meditating and for sharing your thoughts from the texts. It has been one of the most fulfilling experiences of ministry at Trinity for me.

I want to end this letter by joining Miriam, Nihal and Nehara to wish you the very best of God’s blessings in the new year. Scott Wesley Brown wrote the following words that are part of his well-loved song. These words convey my wishes better than I can pen them.

*I could wish you joy and peace
To last a whole life long,
I could wish you sunshine,
Or a cheerful little song,
Or wish you all the happiness
That this life could bring
But I wish you Jesus,
But I wish you Jesus,
But I wish you Jesus,
More than anything. (3)*

THE PRAISE CORNER

by Todd Davis, Director of Music Ministries

*Standing on the promises of Christ, my King,
Through eternal ages let his praises ring;
Glory in the highest, I will shout and sing,
Standing on the promises of God.
Standing, standing,
Standing on the promises of God, my Savior;
Standing, standing,
I'm standing on the promises of God.*

Words: R. Kelso Carter, 1886 (Eph. 6:14-17) Music R. Kelso Carter, 1886

Happy New Year!

Entering a new year can be an exciting, yet anxious time. It might be like turning the page of a book or writing a new chapter in our lives. Often, we have lofty goals and resolutions. As I enter 2022, I will most likely find that these annual promises I make will be met mostly with little to no success!

Yet, the promises I stand firmly on are the promises of God. In reading the only book that matters, the Bible, I will find promises that last a lifetime, and longer. His love, His faithfulness endures. God's promises are assurances we can certainly and confidently stand upon!

Beginning this new year, I thank God for my two greatest blessings, Cathe and Hayden. We look forward to this new year with our Trinity family.

One important music note for the new year is that 2022 will be an important year for the organ. The Peragallo Organ Company of Paterson, New Jersey will begin work on restoring the instrument. What a joy that we can embark on this project to bring the instrument back to excellent functionality and tonal egress. The organ has faithfully served the church for many years. It will continue to serve the church for many years to come!

*Lord God,
Great is your faithfulness.
Your Word is truth unchanged, unchanging.
Be with us now, and always.
I promise to serve you, and you alone.
May the music we make always be a sweet, sweet sound in your ear.
Soli Deo Gloria!*

MUSICALE: GRATITUDE

We are truly grateful to God for each member of our music ministry and for their dedication and passion to worship God through songs.

We give a big shout-out to Todd Davis for his leadership and to everyone who support this ministry so faithfully.

We thank God for His blessings at our Musicale.

HAPPY NEW YEAR: Keeping our New Year's Resolution

by Pastor Peggy

I don't know about you; but I always want to improve myself in the New Year. Whether it is being more conscious about my eating habits, being more intentional as a mother and grandmother, and always....GROWING IN FAITH, spending more time in the Word and in Prayer and Praise.

I have felt that we have had a head start on "growing in faith" with this Advent's reading of the Gospel of Luke; and what has made it extra grace-filled, and awe-inspiring was Pastor Arun's "Advent Gospel Readings." I eagerly awaited each new day to hear how he opened the Word of God for us. New learnings, new lessons to apply each day. If you haven't listened to them, you can start at any time. Just go to your in-box, then go to the SEARCH box at the top of the page and type in "Pastor Arun Luking for Jesus" and they will all come up as the first items in your inbox. He has each one labeled with the Chapter number.

Now, we don't want to get out of the habit of being in the Word, so WHY not make it your New Year's Resolution to attend the Wednesday Night Lenten Bible Study beginning on Wednesday, March 9? It will be in Fellowship Hall. We will be studying Max Lucado's series entitled "You'll Get Through this: Hope and Help for Your Turbulent Times."

WOW, we all need hope and help with the stressful year we've just been through! This study considers the story of Joseph – tossed in a pit by his brothers, sold into slavery, wrongfully imprisoned. God weaved what was meant for evil into good. He is in the business of redeeming the broken. He was then, He is still! Do you crave some hope for these tough times? Then this study is for YOU!

Since the Life of Joseph is recorded in the book of Genesis. Starting in January, let's start reading the "Beginning of God's Covenant with us" by reading a chapter of Genesis each day. There are 50 Chapters; so beginning on Monday, January 3 we should complete the reading of Genesis by February 22 – one week before gathering together for our Lenten Study of "You'll Get Through This" on Wednesday, March 9.

Here is some inspirational notes from "Pastor Arun's Advent Gospel Readings" to whet your appetite and to challenge us to get into the WORD of GOD Jesus" and to give you inspiration to start the New Year off with the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit leading you into deeper wells of God's Word:

Pastor Arun's theme in his "Luke 2 "No Room".

- No room for DOUBT about Jesus, God's Word inspired by the Holy Spirit.
- No room for DISAPPOINTMENT because 'every promise of God in Him is Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us.' 2 Corinthians 1:20
- No Room for DISTRACTIONS about Jesus' devotion to His father's house and the Word of God: His parents "found Him in the Temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions." Luke 2:46

Slogans from Luke 3:

God does not choose us for our greatness, but by God's graciousness.

Word of God is not always palatable but is always profitable.

True success is not about grabbing the limelight but in living in Christ-likeness

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY SERIES

You'll get through it!
Hope and help for turbulent times
Series starts: Wednesday, March 9th

A powerful and encouraging series with small group discussion based on the life of Joseph. We are working and hoping towards adding dinner to the evenings. Start times in the evenings will be announced.

Register for our new midweek Bible study series: 'You'll get through this' by Max Lucado by entering your name in the sign-up sheet placed across the mailboxes or by calling the church office or by sending an email to office@trinityumnc.com or feel free to contact Pastor Peggy, Shirley Sharpe, Jody Blacksmith or Pastor Arun

Thank You!

A big thank you to Carol Everetts and volunteers from the New Cumberland churches for the efficient, gracious turkey give away drive-thru they organized for families.

Thank you to all of those who contributed this season to the Samaritan's purse Operation Christmas Child. The organization is a project that is international in nature. News of Jesus Christ is included and the shoe boxes are sent throughout the world to children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine, and disease as well as to children living on Native American reservations in the U. S. Your contributions are greatly appreciated. This year we did a hybrid model for those wishing to pack shoe boxes and those who preferred to send checks. The Trinity Office has collected $350 and this money will be forward to the headquarters for Operation Christmas Child. As a result of your generosity, children will have a Merry Christmas knowing that so many care and a ray of sunshine for them at this special time of year. Jane Bittner and Patricia Stacey

To the angels sending the handmade blankets...

Thank You!

For years these have been a blessing for our residents! To the residents that do not receive Christmas gifts they receive one of these lovely blankets. They are also given out sporadically to residents that come here with little to no belongings, which makes them feel better every time. So thank you, thank you, thank you. Many blessings to you all! You are angels on earth. Sincerely, Jennifer Vancho, Activities Director (ProMedica -formerly Manor Care Camp Hill)

Thank you to the teams who decorated the church this Christmas season. Tom Baum was in charge of putting the tree up in the sanctuary. Helping him were Ken Gable, Roger Miller, Jim Wertz, Daryl Potteiger, and Cathy Baum. Thank you!

The church decorating committee is headed by Michelle Loomis. Helping to decorate this year were Scott, Presley and Sydney Loomis, Tom and Cathy Baum, Sue Wertz, Wilma Rockey, Daryl Potteiger, Mike and Dianne Schofield, and Ken Gable. Thank you!

The swags hanging on the outside red doors during December were generously given by Don and Nancy Miller. Thank you!

ANNUAL BUDGET 2022

Thanks to our finance team consisting of Gary Forman (chair), Gordon Taylor (member), Carol Wilson (treasurer), and Pastor Arun. The team has met every month to review our finances and make recommendations as needed to the Leadership Team.

Our annual budget is cast by seeking inputs from ministry and small group leaders who give in their information based on programs being planned. Once the draft budget was approved by the Leadership Team on November 29, 2021, copies of the budget were made available for the congregation to review, make suggestions and ask questions. Thank you for your participation.

At the Church Conference that was held on November 13, 2021, a copy of the very satisfying external audit report from McKonly & Asbury was presented. It has been our practice in recent years to hire the services of an accounting firm to audit our books once in 3 years. This is in keeping with our commitment to financial diligence. You can request a copy of the audit report from Carol Wilson at any time.

A church budget is best looked at as a tool to transform lives by the power of the Gospel. Thanks to each of you who have faithfully and generously given to support the ministry of our Lord at Trinity.

We will be presenting our final numbers for 2021 in our February issue of Tidings.

We want to especially thank God for Carol Wilson and her dedication, diligence and excellence in helping Trinity in our financial stewardship.

But my God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19

“God’s work, done in God’s way, will never lack God’s supply.” Hudson Taylor

Thank you, Lord, for your faithfulness.
