Promises from the Savior...

From Your Pastor's Heart

My Dear Friend,

I am writing this letter to you as our hearts are breaking for the people of the Ukraine. We are also learning of the chivalry of those on the front lines who are: committed to defend their freedom, risking their safety to offer relief, and who help with media coverage. We are touched by the generosity of neighbors, like those in Poland, who have been accepting strangers into their homes in the crisis. As the reports pour in, our hearts are crushed to see human agony and angst on the one hand and the tragedy of an insane war-cry on the other.

Even as such a serious matter is before us by way of global attention and magnitude, it is rather telling that one of the biggest trivia debates on social media right now (initiated by Ryan Nixon of New Zealand) has people engaged and busy in a debate. Media reports tell us that his question is exploding all over the internet. Guess what the question is? It is: “Do you think there are more doors or wheels in the world?” Can you believe that?! Has it struck you sometimes that people seem to not have much to do and therefore have much to do? History has moments like that too. For example, think of the soldiers who were casting lots for the garment of Jesus at the foot of the cross. Were they missing something of great magnitude by focusing on something trivial? They were physically close to the greatest sacrifice and salvation-gift that the universe had ever known – but they were spiritually lost in self-indulgence. They were busy hankering over a piece of cloth rather than allowing the fabric of their souls to be touched by the love of the Savior. Can you imagine bargaining over a piece of cloth while the Savior whispers, “Father, forgive them...”?

On the other hand, sometimes, trivia and entertainment might be our way of escaping from facing our bigger challenges. In John chapter 21, we find that Simon Peter tells his fellow disciples, “I’m going out to fish”. Going out to fish under normal circumstances would not have been fishy at all. I know a lot of “fisherfolk” or shall we say, “fishy folk” or “fishing-loving folk” or “hook-and-net folk” (that’s the ocean’s competition to those “meat and potato” folk) among us who would say, “Yep”. By the way, what I like a lot about the fishing industry is the end-product at a dinner table- some tenderly baked salmon with sautéed zucchini, carrots, broccoli, and a few stray shrimps on a bed of rice! Did that spell “Tawoomba”?

Let's talk about, "escape by fishing". Is there a man out there who escapes further than his man cave to the waters of the Susquehanna or Pinchot or the Bay? Every nautical mile away from shore is a sweet reprieve from that nagging spouse, those demanding kids and that low-down boss. Don't we men need a break? A distraction?

On the other hand, have you seen the joy and glee in the eyes of that woman who is out there shopping? Between the sweet aromas of the perfume section, the special offers of the new arrivals, and the fresh air and healing of the fitting/dressing room, she feels like she is lightyears away from that man who is a "mannequin in jammies". If you didn't see his finger moving to press that TV remote button, you would bet he was dead! Oh, how much she wishes he would be a bit more TV free, cellphone free and shopping-spree free (especially when it came to the fishing stuff - there's no room to swim through the garage and basement anymore!). Years of training still can't seem to teach an old fish new tricks! Why do some men never get it?

Getting back to the context in John chapter 21, the disciples had been through a very intense time. After three years of following Jesus and listening to his kingdom messages, watching his grand miracles, and seeing lives transformed, they had faced 24 hours that turned their world upside down. They had watched him go through betrayal by a team member, trials blotched by prejudice, false witnesses and the cry of an angry mob that demanded his crucifixion. They witnessed their Master being beaten, broken, and nailed to the cross. The One who had raised the dead, stilled the storm, healed the paralytic, and fed the 5000 with five loaves and two fish preferred to go through all the agony without protest and without the use of his mighty power! If you were one of the disciples, would you be shaking your head and sighing, "Makes no sense at all!". I guess, that's when fishing makes sense? Or maybe hunting?

The bottom line is that, when life throws its curveballs at us, we may be tempted to snuggle into the oblivion of a tranquil lake, a quiet forest or a healing changing room, where we are surrounded by deer and fish and the lingering aromas of Estée Lauder.

As we approach another season of Passion Week and Easter, we find ourselves following the footsteps of a Savior who did not let anything distract him from his goal. Jesus said in John 10:10, "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life and have it to the full." Yes, that's why he came. The angel had told Joseph, "She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:21.

Jesus knew and embraced his mission with single-minded devotion. He knew from the beginning that his journey from Bethlehem would be directed by signs which read, "This way to Calvary". No wonder, Luke 9:51 says "As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem." Through the painful deceit of a disciple and the abandonment by others, he persevered. Through unjust trials, false testimonies, mean-spirited religious leaders, crowd-pleasing politicians, and the taunts of vicious folk, he persevered. Through lashes, curses, spitting, a crown of thorns and 5-to-6-inch nails in his flesh and blood, he persevered. He persevered because he wanted to save you. Don't ever forget, that he did it all for you, my friend. He left no stone unturned - not even the one that held him in the tomb - to prove his love for you.

Oh! What a Savior!

OUR MONTHLY PRAISE AND PRAYER FOCUS

Every time you go to bed, would you stop to pray for the displaced people of Ukraine?

If the Easter message of a cross-embracing, death-defying Savior does not stir a soul; one wonders what will!

Let me close with words that our dear Pastor Peggy Spengler left for us in the last Facebook Live prayer time that she led:

*Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Look full in His wonderful face
And the things of earth
Will grow strangely dim
In the light of His glory and grace

In the cross of Christ, I glory,
Arun

THE PRAISE CORNER

by Todd Davis, Director of Music Ministries

*“And His name shall be called Wonderful,
Counselor,
the Mighty God,
the Everlasting Father,
The Prince of Peace.”
Isaiah 9:6*

Happy April!

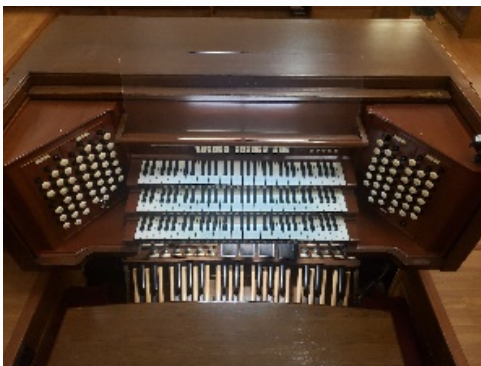

In recent weeks, we have sung, “His Name Is Wonderful” (UMH #174). Audrey Mieir, the author and composer, was inspired to write this song after watching the annual Christmas program at Bethel Union Church in Duarte, California. After hearing the Pastor exclaim, “His name is wonderful,” she was inspired to ascribe names to Jesus found throughout the scriptures. Much like Isaiah’s quintuplet of names, Audrey Mieir’s names include Wonderful; Lord; Mighty king; master; Shepherd; Rock of Ages; and Almighty God. This April, especially in our music, we focus on the resurrected King! May our praise be glorious as we move towards Easter and beyond.

Soli Deo Gloria!
Todd

CHOIR

Last month, the Chancel Choir sang an arrangement of “Change My Heart, O God/Lord Be Glorified.” It’s a powerful text that exhorts us to look at ourselves and how we may live in such a way to glorify God. It is always our hope to understand and convey the message of each anthem through the music we present.

Lord, we glorify you. Change our hearts. Make us more like you.
May our songs be a sweet, sweet sound in your ear. Amen.

ORGAN RESTORATION

The organ restoration work will begin within two months! The organ is capable of so much, including leading worship, accompanying others, and presenting its own unique repertoire. As there will be a time during the restoration process when the organ is unusable, we will continue to make joyous music in creative and various ways. Please be patient as we await the return of the instrument!

MIDWEEK MUSIC CONCERTS

Midweek Music concerts continue! I am thankful to God for the opportunity to present these programs and thankful for everyone's continued support of these programs.

This month, we will pass the 100-concert mark. It is my hope that these programs are a blessing and powerful inspiration to all. Music has the awesome power to stir us in deep and profound ways. It has the amazing power to bring our hearts to praise and to prayer!

Please join us for these times of music. Concerts are on Wednesdays at noon and last approximately 30-40 minutes. It's always a fun time, online, or in-person! (Perhaps you may even find humor in my jokes!)

WORDS OF WELLNESS

Henry Ford is credited with saying,
"Whether you think you can or - think you can't... you're right."
There is truth in that lesson.

With "high" expectations - chances are good for success, although not necessarily so... "positive thinking" is only the first step. Without positive "actions", there is greater chance for a dubious outcome. With "low" expectation - it is most assuredly so.

Have you ever wondered why the Palm Sunday crowd so easily forgot their enthusiasm and celebration, only to engage in "mob mentality"? They had high expectations, but when they could not, or would not see the bigger picture - public humiliation ensued and our Jesus suffered their taunts and degradation. They didn't realize their assault did not so much diminish Jesus as their own actions diminished themselves.

Perhaps the time has come for a little self-examination... The Lenten Season is that perfect time to re-evaluate. How often do our actions betray our true feelings, disappointment, and our "high" expectations? Even when we know we are "wrong" - isn't it the hardest thing to admit? And yet, even then... as was true for His cross-mates on that hill so long ago -

Our Lord offers "forgiveness"~

Does history repeat itself? Will it once again? Isn't it true - If we don't remember the mistakes of the past - We are destined to repeat them... Hopefully each of us will let down our defenses and re-access who we are - remember to whom we belong.

FORGIVENESS truly is the cornerstone of being CHRIST-LIKE. ~

Standing on His promises-
Your Parish Nurse,
Barbara Z.

*Regret looks back -
Worry looks around -
Faith looks ahead ~*

THANK YOU, PASTOR PEGGY!

It is hard to express our emotions as we think of Pastor Peggy. On the one hand, we have the deepest appreciation for her passionate and committed life for Christ and His kingdom. On the other hand, we feel the pain of her home-going. It has been an absolute privilege for us at Trinity and in the wider circle of New Cumberland to have had Pastor Peggy in our circle. Pastor Peggy's longing was that everyone come to know of the saving love and Gospel of our Lord, Jesus. She also had a great passion for a community that prays for kingdom purposes.

Would you help us continue to keep the inspiration that Pastor Peggy left for us? We invite you to join us in our weekly Facebook prayer times on Tuesday nights, presently at 7 PM, but at 8 PM from March 29th onwards in view of the changing weather. Also, please participate by going to the prayer wall of Trinity church on our website at www.trinityumnc.com. Please pray for people listed there and click on the, "Prayed for you" button.

MISSION OUTREACH MEALS MINISTRY UPDATE

Trinity is so blessed by our "caring, sharing, meal-makers"! (There are twelve team-members at present.)

This past month, 20+ meals have been prepared and delivered to our seniors, home-bound, and post hospitalized Trinity family and friends.

One dear M.O.M. team-member and contributor not only shares her meal making expertise but also her faith and encouraging words, along with preparation instructions and ingredients... Somehow, that little personal touch adds flavor and savor - lifting hearts and giving hope.

Another caring, creative contributor made "oodles of noodles"... (specifically chicken-corn-noodle soup), because she learned it not only soothes the spirit and tames a troubled tummy, but also helps to heal a heavy heart.

One caring couple preps and delivers with prayer, heart-healthy "home-style" meals on a weekly basis.

We have even been blessed by a gentleman's culinary skills - only "one" of his many talents are shared from kitchen to sanctuary.

May God bless each of you for your time, talents, and totally selfless acts of compassion. ~

With gratitude and appreciation
Your Parish Nurse,
Barbara Z.

8:30 PM PRAYER TIME

Your participation matters greatly. Thank you for setting your alarms and reminders for 8:30 PM every night. If you are new at Trinity, we want to invite you to stop and pray at 8:30 PM every night with us. We not only pray for the people we love at Trinity, but for God's work in New Cumberland and also for any other concerns that our world faces.

As Trinity approaches its' 150th year in 2023, will you also pray that we can see new families continue to join our church? We are thrilled for the 15 individuals who recently joined our fellowship. Remember the Pastor's challenge of 20 by 23. Twenty new families by 2023.

Some of you have asked, "What if I missed praying at 8:30 PM?" Please don't hesitate to pray even after that if you are still awake. We invite you to stop and pray at least for 5 minutes.

May our burden for those who do not know Jesus, those suffering without help, those in anguish because of family and social circumstances, those in the web of addictions, those who are homeless and others – always move our hearts to pray.

The church of God marches best on its knees.

Thank You!

Dear Trinity Family,

A heartfelt "Thank You" from Terry and me for your expressions of love and support as Terry battles cancer. Your prayers, cards, phone calls, and visits during the last year have been a reminder of your commitment to follow Jesus command to "Love One Another." Thank you especially to Pastor Arun, Pastor Carl, and Barbara Z. for visiting us, for calls, and prayers. Terry's chemo continues; we covet your prayers for wisdom and discernment as he continues treatments.

Thank you, also, for cards, visits, phone calls, texts, and emails you shared with me during my time in the hospital and at rehab. Knowing that so many of you were praying, feeling the love you were sending my way truly helped me get through this difficult time. I praise God that I am on the mend

Terry and I feel blessed to be connected to such a loving family of faith. May God bless each of you, as you have been a blessing to us and so many others.

*Under the Mercy,
Karen & Terry Bowen*

NEXT PRAY & GO

The next scheduled gathering at the church for Pray & Go is Monday, April 18, 2022 @ 5:30 PM (note time change) weather permitting. If that date / time does not work for you and you want to walk with a partner(s) at another time so as not to duplicate houses please contact Sharon Sheffer 717-774-3137 (sesheffer@outlook.com) for where to Pray & Go. Once you walk please e-mail Sharon Sheffer with street and house numbers you covered. Any questions, please contact Sharon Sheffer, Coordinator of Pray & Go. Thank You.

Dear Trinity Family,

Jim and I want to thank you for all your prayers and cards which supported Jim and me during his heart diagnosis and now his recovery from open heart surgery. Many of the cards made him laugh, that's a good sign. Many had sincere words of encouragement. Many had prayers that helped us know that God is in control. Some of you informed friends that are not Trinity folk but know Jim and they sent well wishes. We both feel so loved and cared for. Please know how much that has helped with Jim's healing and recovery. Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts.

Jim and Jody Blacksmith

We are looking for volunteers in various parts of the program.

Carol Evertts and team will help us host a welcome table and also giveaway Love Boxes on a first-come, first-serve basis. We are looking forward to involving our youth, children and as many of you as possible.
