Celebrating Christmas in a hurting world

My dear Trinity Family,

It is a joy and privilege to wish you and your loved ones a truly wonder-filled season of Advent and Christmas.

One of the incomparable gifts (and I mean that from the bottom of my heart) of living in Pennsylvania, is the privilege of being privy to the coloring passions of God. Each Fall, it appears God enjoys demonstrating his love for us in vibrant colors as he turns the woods into his canvas and our paths into his kaleidoscope of wonder. In their worship song “Nobody loves me like you”, contemporary song writers Ed Cash and Scott Cash write:

*Morning, I see You in the sunrise every morning,
It's like a picture that You've painted for me,
A love letter in the sky.*

What a precious gift! To think of the Great God of the Grand Universe writing his love letters in the sky – just for us! In the grand scheme of the Grand-Weaver, creation becomes a welcome sign of love for the weary, a road sign of direction for the lost and a stop sign of reckoning for the self-absorbed. As author Philip Yancey affirms, “A God wise enough to create me and the world I live in, is wise enough to watch out for me”. At the heart of creation is the heart of a God who loves you and me and is writing his love letters in the sky.

Eugene Peterson in the Bible paraphrase, “The Message” captures Psalm 19:1 in these words:

*God's glory is on tour in the skies,
God-craft on exhibit across the horizon.
Madame Day holds classes every morning,
Professor Night lectures each evening.*

*"A God wise enough to create me and the world I live in, is wise enough to watch out for me."
Philip Yancey*

Would it not be a tragedy of significant proportions if we read the message in creation but fail to recognize the handwriting of the creator? Over the years I have heard Millie Walters ponder upon the glory of creation and sigh, “I can’t imagine how anyone can say there is no God!”. Well said, Millie.

In the hymn “Fairest Lord Jesus”, the translator and arranger invite us to enjoy the glory of creation without missing the greater beauty of the One behind it.

*Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring:
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
Who makes the woeful heart to sing.*

Story upon story, time-zone after time-zone, continent upon continent, century upon century, God continues to “make woeful hearts to sing”. The Psalmist in Psalm 40 celebrates the miracles of God’s transforming power and love in his life. He writes, “I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry. He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear the Lord and put their trust in him.

“Lord, I pray that many will put their trust in you.” Could we make this the prayer of our hearts during this special season? In the 1990s I served as Assistant Pastor at the Richmond Town Methodist Church in Bangalore, India. Every year at Christmas time we as a congregation committed to share the good news of the Gospel with our relatives, neighbors, colleagues, and friends. Our worship services, our Christmas Cantatas/ musicals, our outreach to poor families, our gift program to the needy, our special program for home-helpers, our outreach to the children of prisoners and a local slum were all ways in which we shared the love of Jesus. Each year, we hosted a big outdoor music, drama and message event titled, “Love came down at Christmas” on the evening of December 25th. Church members invited friends and the place would be packed with people from beyond the circle of the church. It happened on such nights that the Lord would “put a new song” in some heart and that life would never be the same again. As God’s people we did our best to avoid charity without clarity. In essence we did not leave people guessing about “what” inspired us to do what we did, but in gentleness and grace sought to point them to “who” inspired us. Celebrating Christmas without making Jesus known is like celebrating Veterans Day without mentioning veterans. Have you ever thought of celebrating your favorite team’s Superbowl victory without mentioning your team’s name or honors? Imagine a new rule which says, you can celebrate the victory but not the team! Sounds ridiculous, doesn’t it? Wait a minute. Do you see the writing on the wall in a culture that heartily embraces “Happy holidays” but winces with discomfort when one joyfully says, “Merry Christmas”? Have we forgotten that celebrating Christmas without Christ is like trying to enjoy omelets without eggs, sunrises without the sun, a wedding without the bride and groom?

I wish to invite you to help Trinity share the message of the Great Gospel this season. Here are some ways in which you can help:

- Pray for a season in which we experience the great work of the Holy Spirit in abundance.
- Invite a friend to church this season
- Invite friends to our Christmas Musicales
- Invite kids and youth to join our programs – especially with us now having our new Director of Family Ministries, Faith Perlick
- Invite young families (and folk who may not be going to a church) to join us at our Christmas Eve service on December 24th at 6.30 pm. As in the past we pray it will be a service that welcomes kids, youth, and families. This year the service will include a 15-minute time of worship lead by a praise and worship team which will be brought together by our new worship leader, Jamie Bream. Would you pray with us that some of our guests that night will opt to become regular worshippers at Trinity?

- Invite youth, young adults and families who may be looking for a worship service with contemporary worship music. We are working towards launching such a service in Fellowship Hall at 9:40 am on Sundays beginning January 8, 2023.
- Share online links of our programs and services with friends
- Share the "sermon by phone" number (717-774-0108) with friends who don't view online services/programs.

Thanks for your year-round support to the outreach ministries that Trinity is engaged in. We cannot do it without your gifts of prayer, time, and resources.

As we look back into 2022, we are grateful as a post-pandemic congregation for the Lord's blessings. During our recent church conference, our District Superintendent Rev. Barry Robison observed with gratitude that while many of our churches are facing lower online attendance and some are even in the path of shutting down online services, Trinity's online ministry has been growing. He also celebrated the 95 individuals who are committed to being safe sanctuary trained to serve kids, youth, and vulnerable adults. He said that we are probably one among the top five churches in the Harrisburg District with that many volunteers. Above all, Pastor Barry celebrated the ministries that we are privileged to be engaged in for Christ and his Kingdom. To God alone be the glory.

We have been through a year of focusing on our theme, "Standing on the promises". We know the Lord has been more than faithful to his promises. As I write this letter to you, it is past 10 pm on Wednesday, November 9, 2022. The nation is analyzing, discussing, and pondering over the mid-term poll results. As I wrote in a recent e-mail to our church family, we don't fear the future because we know WHO led us in the past. This has been a rather challenging day for me. I woke up at 2:30 am with a severe flank pain on account of kidney stones. The pain persisted in spite of medication for 8 hours and 40 minutes and abated just as I was preparing to go to the emergency room. I must confess, it was quite some pain. I kept focusing upon Jesus on the cross as I went through the pain. I also thought of those of you in our congregation who have had to cope with chronic pains. Somewhere along even as I was on all fours because of the pain, I was reminded of what I preached last Sunday! Yes, God does not always insulate us from the storm, but he educates us through the storm. I hope he found a willing student in me.

I am grateful for having been able to complete the writing of this letter. In the course of writing, I remembered the words of C.S. Lewis and smiled. He wrote, "If only this toothache would go away, I could write another chapter on the problem of pain."

At Bethlehem we have a Savior who completely identified with our human challenges and pain. God did not stand afar, He came near – so that He could draw us near to Himself.

Because of Bethlehem,
Arun

THANK YOU TO THE DECORATING TEAM

Trinity has been beautifully decorated for the Advent and Christmas season. Thank you to the team who decorated! A new tree replaces the tree that was used for many years. New garlands replace the very worn garlands that surround the sanctuary. Thank you to all who work tirelessly to beautify the sanctuary. May you be blessed for your service.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A BLESSED NEW YEAR!

The leadership team, staff and pastor wish you a truly blessed season of Advent and a merry Christmas. We also take the moment to wish you and your loved ones a very blessed year ahead.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

We will again use battery operated candles for the candle lighting services on Christmas Eve. We do what we can to keep the congregation safe from continuing concerns of covid.

TRINITY'S FUTURE: VERY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

In view of the present conversations within the United Methodist Church regarding the future position of the United Methodist Church, on human sexuality, we as leaders met with Rev. Kathleen Kind, Director of Connectional Ministries of the Susquehanna Conference. During our meeting on October 26th, we received information about the process of disaffiliation from the United Methodist Church, should we choose not to agree with the possible progressive views which may be in the United Methodist Church's future. We also had time to ask questions. After the meeting, we decided to be in prayerful discernment until our regular Leadership Team meeting scheduled on October 31st. At that meeting, we prayerfully and unanimously came to the decision to take the following steps:

1. Invite you as our congregation to pray very much for the direction of Trinity's future.
2. Keep you informed of the information we are gathering.
3. Call for an informal meeting of church members to pray and talk about our situation and options.
4. Request a date from the Susquehanna Conference for a special Church Conference at which church members can vote on the future path of Trinity Church.

WE REQUEST TRINITY MEMBERS TO SAVE THE FOLLOWING DATES AND PLEASE BE PRESENT AT BOTH THESE IMPORTANT MEETINGS

1. Church members gathering at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 30

At this meeting Trinity members will pray together, receive information, and engage in conversation about the options before us as a church in view of the changing dynamics in the UMC regarding human sexuality. Coffee and cookies will be served.

2. Church Conference meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, December 7

At this meeting the future of Trinity will be determined by your vote as members.

We are thankful that the Lord is the one whom we trust at these times. We are also thankful to you as a congregation for your faithful participation and patient prayers. This is a season of challenges and discernment. We request you to feel free to ask questions. You can share your questions with our church office or any of the Leadership Team members. Please be assured that we are seeking to work faithfully, transparently, and in a timely manner for the best of Trinity and our continuing ministry to all.

REFRESHMENTS FOLLOWING THE MUSICALE

Thank you to Cathy Baum, Jo Lower, and the entire Hospitality Team for the refreshments following the Thursday, December 15th Musicale and Sunday morning, December 18th Musicale.

DECEMBER 25TH AND JANUARY 1ST WORSHIP

Trinity will have only one service at 9:30 am on Christmas Day and New Year's Day. There will be no Sunday School nor Coffee Fellowship. On New Year's Day we will also serve Holy Communion and have an abbreviated Wesley Covenant Service.

THE PRAISE CORNER by Todd Davis, Director of Music Ministries

*Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light,
and usher in the morning;
O shepherds, shrink not with affright,
but hear the angel's warning.
This child, now weak in infancy,
our confidence and joy shall be,
the power of Satan breaking, our peace eternal making.*
(Johann Rist, 1641)

CHRISTMAS MUSICALE

Happy December! Yes, once again, we will host the annual Christmas Musicale on Thursday, December 15, at 7:00 pm, and Sunday, December 18th at 10:45 am. The LESSONS AND CAROLS theme offers a wide range of hymnody, readings, and involvement! We will hear choirs, organ, soloists, various instrumentalists, and more. Refreshments to follow!

On Wednesday, December 7th, at 12:15 pm, I will present an organ concert at Camp Hill Presbyterian Church as part of its Music and Arts Series. I invite you to attend! The program will include works of Johann Sebastian Bach and Louis Claude Daquin.

MIDWEEK MUSIC CONCERTS

Midweek Music concerts continue! Many, many thanks to everyone who faithfully attends and watches online.

This month, the Sunnier Side of Sixty group will begin attending the Wednesday program on the day the group meets. The "Music-Message-Meal" meeting time for the group is exactly as it sounds. Come for the MUSIC, hear an inspirational MESSAGE given by Pastor Arun, and stay for the MEAL to follow! This will take place on Wednesday, December 14th.

Each month, a theme helps tie the programs together. This month, we will "Come and adore Him!" with music for Advent and Christmas the entire month of December! It is my hope that these programs are a blessing and powerful inspiration to all. Music has the awesome power to stir us in deep and profound ways!

God be praised now and always, unto the end of the ages. Amen!
Soli Deo Gloria!
Todd

HALLOW HIM

Our 'Kids for Christ' ministry and youth group were blessed and reminded of the meaning of hallowing Christ at Halloween time. Pumpkin carving was fun and the lesson from scripture was a blessing for the 20 plus kids and youth who attended. Thank you parents and grandparents for participating. You are awesome and your kids are wonderful! Thanks kids, youth, and volunteers. Thank you, Lord!

TRINITY YOUTH

by Faith Perlick, Director of Family Ministries

It's easy to wonder: How can we grow our youth numbers? What will attract the next generation? How can we reach the unreached family?

While pondering these questions, God brought me to Isaiah 41:10. Isaiah is a book that unveils the full dimensions of God's judgment and salvation, and the prophet was likely asking similar questions as he tried to remind the people of God's goodness and coming judgment. We would be wise to listen to God's answer, which is the same today as it was in 700 BC.

*"Fear not, for I am with you;
Be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
Yes, I will help you,
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand."
Isaiah 41:10*

The same God who loved his chosen people in Israel so loves his children at 415 Bridge Street. We need not fear; we need not be dismayed. God will strengthen and help and uphold us with His righteous right hand. Who will grow our numbers? God will. What will attract the next generation? God will. How can we reach the unreached family? God is already pursuing them. Since I began at Trinity I've been asking God how I can make these differences. Here was his answer: Faith, I will sound the call. You receive these children with love.

I am delighted to write that the Trinity youth ministry has been newly dedicated to God. Through service opportunities and weekly meetings, our youth are growing in stature, maturity, and faith. Currently, the youth are studying from Kyle Idleman and his Right Now Media series "One at a Time", as well as from Orange.com's curriculum, wherein the youth are learning to put God first in the "First Place" series. Just as in Isaiah's day, God's right hand sustains our efforts as we invest in these lives. We invite you to praise God who is working through Trinity's youth.

Thank you, Trinity Church, for making this possible. Thank you for warmly welcoming me into this new position, and for showing me the love you have for your youth. I am so delighted to be a part of Trinity's ministry. This church is God's answer to my prayers—I am blessed to be here!

PRAYER FOCUS FOR DECEMBER

Would you pray for the little children around the world for whom Operation Christmas Child will be a blessing?
Thanks to all of you who contributed shoe boxes with love gifts for kids. Would you pray for the children in Ukraine whose lives are altered by war?

A CROP WALK THANK YOU!

I would like to thank all those who helped to make Trinity's participation in this year's CROP Walk such a success. First, I would like to thank our walkers – Missi St Cyr, Mary and Nathan Strausbaugh and Barbara Zimmerman. What an awesome group to share a walk with on such a beautiful day. I would also like to thank all of those who contributed to this very worthy cause. I am overwhelmed by your generosity! I set a goal of $1,500 and we doubled it - over $3,000 was raised! A special thanks to Trinity's youth group who generously shared $600 of their hard earned scarecrow money! Amazing! And last but definitely not least, thank you for all of your prayers. We have been truly blessed by all of your support. I pray these prayers and gifts will bless those who need our help so much. With deep gratitude – Mel Eyer

NURSERY ANNOUNCEMENT

In view of flu season, RSV, and the return of Covid, we request that children who have cold symptoms do not come to the nursery on those Sundays.

SUNNIER SIDE OF SIXTY HAS A NEW LOOK AND NAME!

On Wednesday, December 14th we will resume the every other month midweek service. It will be MUSIC, INSPIRATION and LUNCH. The service will combine with Midweek Music, and on this second Wednesday of every other month at 12 noon, we will have a short inspirational time, this month with Pastor Arun, music organized by Todd Davis, followed by a light lunch in the Mt. Olivet Room. Again, transportation will be available for those needing transportation. Come for music and inspiration and stay for lunch! Thanks to Cathy Baum and the Hospitality Team for hosting the lunch.

This program is an ongoing food drive that benefits Students/Kids of W.S.S.D. There is a list of the preferred items on Trinity's website and a copy on the bulletin board in the Narthex. Please consider bringing items to the church and putting them on the designated A.S.K. table in the hallway. You can also make a financial donation and put it in an offering plate. Please make checks payable to TUMC with ASK on the memo line. Please contact Cathy Baum for further information. Thanks to all who support this project.

WELCOME JAMIE BREAM! TRINITY'S CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP LEADER

Jamie Bream was born in Dillsburg, Pennsylvania and graduated in December 2021 with a Bachelor of Science in Music and Worship from the School of Music at Liberty University, where he also earned a minor in Trumpet Performance. During his time at Liberty, Jamie was involved with numerous performing ensembles, including the Wind Symphony, Marching Band, and Pit Orchestra, and also officiated six seasons of intramural basketball. In his free time, Jamie enjoys fishing in the Yellow Breeches, writing and arranging music, editing audio and video projects, and playing whatever sport is in season. In addition to serving at Trinity, Jamie works part-time on the facilities team at Christian Life Assembly in Camp Hill and officiates basketball with the Central Pennsylvania branch of the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials (IAABO). Currently, Jamie lives in Dillsburg with his parents, Tim and Deb, and his two younger brothers, Steven and Andrew.

Jamie's motivation as a worship leader can be captured in his words, "I believe that worship is defined as our response to who God is and all He has done for us, to the glory of His name and His name alone. I believe I have been called to lead believers in worship in response to everything God has done for us."

Jamie joins our staff in this part-time role commencing November 15. We request your prayers for Jamie as he seeks to bring together a praise and worship team to lead us in our contemporary services beginning January 8, 2023, at 9:40 a.m. in our Fellowship Hall. In our 150th year as a church, this adventure of restarting contemporary worship services can be a precious bridge to welcoming young families and hearts to a living relationship with Jesus. Let us pray that they will feel drawn to Him in powerful, life altering ways even as they rediscover worship in the language and music of their hearts.

Over the last several years, Pastor Arun has been earnestly praying for this door to open. The Lord is at work and is doing things in his time. We are thankful to Ken Gable and Beth Sider (Staff Parish team) for their faithful prayers, search and diligent work that has seen the recent appointments of Faith and Jamie becoming a reality. We are immensely thankful to the leadership team for their faithful support. Thanks to all of you in the congregation who have been longing and praying for a new day of ministries when our church will be filled with more children, youth, young adults, and young families who will find a precious family of faith in our Trinity circle. The Lord is answering your prayers. This journey may take time – but we are grateful to be on our way with the Lord as our captain.

SECRET SISTERS

SHHH.. your Secret Sister is going to be revealed on December 17 at 10:00 a.m. at the monthly meeting at the St. John's room. We will have a few door prizes in store for those attending at the reveal. You are asked to bring your Christmas gift for your Secret Sister. We will share how being a Secret Sister has been a blessing to each one of us this year. I am asking if you need assistance in getting your gift to your Secret Sister please contact me by phone PRIOR to the meeting. I would like to have your gift to your Secret Sister by 12/15. Please put your name and phone number inside your package in a card so that your Secret Sister can call you directly. New sheets will be handed out for completion at this meeting.

Our next meeting is on 1/21/23 at 10:00 in the St. John's room. Bring your completed sheet back. You will pick your Secret Sister for the coming year. If you can't make it, no worries, one will be selected for you. Looking forward to you joining us for the Secret Sister program starting your New Year off with the encouragement of a woman of God praying for you everyday. You can reach Vicky at 717-623-6568 with any questions. Thank you!!

STARFISH MINISTRIES SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11 @ 12:00 - 1:30 P.M.
