CALL TO WORSHIP: Psalm 65: 1-4/9-13 (standing)

Leader: Kathy Brosius

L: What mighty praise, O God, belongs to you in Zion.

A: We will fulfill our vows to you, for you answer our prayers.

L: All of us must come to you.

A: Though we are overwhelmed by our sins, you forgive them all.

L: What joy for those you choose to bring near, those who live in your holy courts.

A: What festivities await us inside your holy Temple.

L: You take care of the earth and water it, making it rich and fertile.

A: The river of God has plenty of water; it provides a bountiful harvest of grain, for you have ordered it so.

L: You drench the plowed ground with rain, melting the clods and leveling the ridges.

A: You soften the earth with showers and bless its abundant crops.

L: You crown the year with a bountiful harvest; even the hard pathways overflow with abundance.

A: The grasslands of the wilderness become a lush pasture, and the hillsides blossom with joy.

L: The meadows are clothed with flocks of sheep, and the valleys are carpeted with grain.

A: What mighty praise, O God, belongs to you in Zion. We will fulfill our vows to you.

HYMN #694 Come, You Thankful People Come

Come, ye thankful people, come, raise the song of harvest home; all is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin. God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied; come to God's own temple, come, raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field, fruit as praise to God we yield; wheat and tares together sown are to joy or sorrow grown; first the blade and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear; Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take the harvest home; from the field shall in that day all offenses purge away, giving angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast; but the fruitful ears to store in the garner evermore.

Even so, Lord, quickly come, bring thy final harvest home; gather thou thy people in, free from sorrow, free from sin, there, forever purified, in thy presence to abide; come, with all thine angels, come, raise the glorious harvest home.

A TIME OF CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER (standing)

Worship Leader. We are in the week of Thanksgiving and today we celebrate Jesus our Lord and Savior in a special way. On Christ the King Sunday, we want to invite join us in a time of prayer. I will open with a line in prayer and invite you to add – either single words, or phrases or sentences to offer a congregational prayer. Let us pray.

Thank you for all you mean to us, Jesus. I just want to say Jesus, I love you because...
